

English III: American Literature

Name: _____

Five Quick Takeaways from Presentation: Bradbury's "The Pedestrian"

1. Totalitarian: a form of government with total control over the individual; a police state; dictatorial control.
2. Bradbury is a major founder of science-fiction stories; used highly creative language and metaphors to show alternative histories; possibilities.
3. Foreshadow: a suggestion of a story's conclusion; usually predicts sad closure
4. The character Mead is left without extreme description; he represents anyone.
5. Bradbury creates a theme of a probable dystopian future for the United States.

Final Analysis: Exit Ticket