English III: American Literature

Name:
Anne Bradstreet, "To My Dear and Loving Husband" —part 2
Objective Due end of class.
Supply six or more sentences to defend your value claim comparing Anne Bradstreet's poem to the work you've selected for analysis. If you finish early, help your fellow group members to finish on time.
Look closely at the elements Bradstreet uses to create her personal poem to her husband. Compare her use of rhyme , mood , tone , purpose , and speaker's background again the lyric work you selected to analyze for Assignment 2. How are the works similar? How are the works different? Remember value claims must name all components of a comparison.
For example: Both Anne Bradstreet's poem to her husband and the song "X" by YyZz use—"
