Course Materials

Open Educational Resources available in LSC-Tomball English Department D2L website.

Course Description

Intensive study of and practice in writing processes, from invention and researching to drafting, revising, and editing, both individually and collaboratively. Emphasis on effective rhetorical choices, including audience, purpose, arrangement, and style. Focus on writing the academic essay as a vehicle for learning, communicating, and critical analysis.

Note: ENGL 1301 is now a pre-requisite for all 2000-level literature courses. This change was a result of recommendations by the English faculty group for the 2011 Learning Objectives project.

Core Objectives

The Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board mandated a set of Core Objectives, inspired by the Association of American Colleges and Universities national initiative, Liberal Education and America's Promise (LEAP). These four objectives apply to communication courses:

- 1. Critical Thinking Skills to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information
- 2. Communication Skills to include effective development, interpretation, and expression of ideas through written and visual communication<sup>i</sup>
- 3. Teamwork to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
- 4. Personal Responsibility to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making

Learning Outcomes

Basic skills in punctuation, grammatical usage, and diction are expected upon entrance. English faculty will require a usage handbook as a reference source.

The following learning outcomes must appear in the syllabus distributed to students. They can be found at http://www.thecb.state.tx.us/apps/workforceed/acgm/acgm.htm.

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- 1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative writing processes.
- 2. Develop ideas with appropriate support and attribution.
- 3. Write in a style appropriate to audience and purpose.
- 4. Read, reflect, and respond critically to a variety of texts.
- 5. Use Edited American English in academic essays.

Attendance Policy

Class attendance is absolutely necessary for your success in this course, so you must attend class. It is the responsibility of each student to attend class. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to find a classmate from whom you can get notes, handouts, and assignments. A lot of important events (discussions, class assignments, tests, etc.) occur at the beginning of class, so arrive on time! This class requires active participation. Schoology will keep you up to date.

Student Absence on Religious Holy Days

The student must notify the faculty member in writing within the first 12 days of the semester of the intent to be absent due to a religious holy day. Under Texas Education Code 51.911, a student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time as established by the faculty member.

Assignments

All major assignments are to be completed and submitted to the instructor on the scheduled due date. After 1-week, late assignments will not be accepted. Late Assignment: Any assignment that is received seven consecutive days after dues date is considered late. Ten grade points for each day missed will be deducted from score. After five class days, late assignments will not be accepted. A specific form is required to request submission of late work.

Class Participation

It is EXTREMELY important that all students are prepared each day. Your active participation in class discussions, cooperative learning opportunities, and group projects is essential. Students who are unprepared, who sleep in class, or who are disruptive will lose available points for the day. Instructor will follow the student handbook in regards to discipline and student behavior.

Student Behavior Expectations

You are expected to conduct yourself appropriately while on College property or in an online environment. You may receive disciplinary action up to and including suspension, if you violate College rules, disrupt classes, or interfere with the opportunity of others to obtain an education. Students who pose a threat to the safety of others will be subject to immediate withdrawal from the classroom, campus environment, and/or online environment, as well as face subsequent criminal charges, as appropriate. Please refer to the Student Code of Conduct for additional information.

Counseling Services

Counseling services are available to students who are experiencing difficulty with academic issues, selection of college major, career planning, disability accommodations, or personal issues. You may contact Counseling Services at 281.351.3380 or stop by S-104 to make an appointment.

Make-Up Exams and Late Work

Students should contact the instructor prior to missing a scheduled examination by phone, in person, by e-mail, or by voicemail. An opportunity to take an alternative examination will be offered to those who make prior contact with the instructor. All make-up exams will be administered during Cougar Block or before/after school class times.

Course Requirements and Grading Policy

The System upholds the core values of learning: honesty, trust, respect, fairness, and accountability. We promote the importance of personal and academic honesty. We embrace the belief that all learners – students, faculty, staff and administrators – will produce their own work and must give appropriate credit to the work of others. No fabrication of sources or unauthorized collaboration is permitted on any work submitted within the System. Even inadvertent cheating or plagiarizing must be avoided by careful documentation of the other people's ideas and language. Please refer to the Academic Honesty and Student Success brochure for more information.

The Lone Star College System subscribes to Turnitin.com, an online collaborative learning tool for faculty which supports faculty in their quest to uphold academic integrity. Student coursework will be submitted to the scrutiny of the Turnitin software. Please note that these submissions of assignments to Turnitin do not necessarily constitute an accusation or suspicion of plagiarism on the student's part.

To carry a concealed handgun on LSC campuses, an individual must have a valid License to Carry issued by the Texas Department of Public Safety.

LSC has established rules and regulations regarding enforcement of Campus Carry. Lone Star College prohibits concealed carry in some areas of LSC campuses. Oral communication is handled explicitly in the 42 credit hour LSCS Core through the Speech course Core requirement. The LSCS General Education Committee determined that courses in the Core clearly can and should and usually must complement each other in order to achieve full coverage of the core objectives mandated by the THECB.
