

Academic MLA Paragraphs

Academic MLA Paragraphs

In an academic, research setting at least five sentences are needed to defend your chosen subject.

1. Topic sentence introduces the subject: your observations on subject
2. Secondary evidence sentence (SES): confirmation of your thoughts
3. Analysis or Review of evidence (i): your explanation of information
4. Analysis or Review of evidence (ii): your explanation of information
5. Conclusion (deductive resolution regarding evidence): your thesis

Academic MLA Paragraphs

In Gothic horror fiction, writers often utilize mentally unstable characters as protagonists. ¹ One reason for doing so puts readers off-guard and makes them feel uneasy. ² This concept shows, in a sense, a manipulation of the text by displaying narrators' illogical personality types, which disturbs willing readers. ³ As an example, Edgar Allan Poe uses planned strategies which are more than accidental writing. ⁴ As a result it can be clearly seen that many of Poe's reworkings of fiction have become standards in modern day short stories. ⁵

1. Topic sentence introduces the subject—general comment
2. Secondary evidence sentence (SES)—specific point on topic
3. Analysis or Review of evidence—more specific point on topic
4. Analysis or Review of evidence—very specific example
5. Conclusion (deductive resolution showing main point)—specific deductive thesis