

Cause and Effect- part 1

Below are a number of subjects which can be addressed with a Cause and Effect Pattern.

Just like your last assignment, choose one subject as the focus of your paper. Over the week begin preliminary research on your chosen topic. Using data to defend your point is crucial for this pattern.

OBJECTIVES

01. free-write for remainder of class
02. isolate a possible topic based on the subjects provided
03. likewise, isolate a strong concept of cause and effect on your topic
04. the topic you choose cannot be changed after today
05. the free-write is not graded for content, but points will be given accordingly
06. neatness does count
07. show exploration of your understanding of cause and effect

SUBJECTS

01. the values of your parents relating to how you are today
02. lack of communication in a relationship and the positive or negative results
03. over-exercising, or not exercising, and how it effects your health
04. a particular television show's popularity; what cultural changes has it caused?
05. skill or lack of skill in a particular sport
06. changing (or not changing) attitudes toward the environment
