

Diagnostic Essay

A major portion of literary analysis requires the critic to compare and contrast common elements within genres.

- Using “The Goose Girl” and “Godfather Death” contrast the different strategies utilized by the story tellers.
- Or compare the passivity of the female characters in “The Birthmark” and in the “The Goose-Girl.” Why do you think the authors chose such similar qualities?

DUE: Exercise is due typed next Friday 06.18.10.

OBJECTIVES

1. Isolate a strong thesis statement regarding the two stories. For example:
“Both the Princess in ‘The Goose Girl’ and Georgiana from ‘The Birthmark’ utilize the same passive characteristics for different strategies.”
2. Remember you want to feature your topic throughout the essay. Each paragraph must defend your main focus. Be sure to support the thesis with secondary evidence details from each story.
3. When writing the first draft, be sure subsequent paragraphs include topic sentences relating to your thesis.
4. Create an interesting, intricate introduction which clearly shows the focus of your essay and leads the reader into subsequent paragraphs.
5. Be sure each new paragraph includes a strong transitional phrase.
6. Use five or more sentences per paragraph.
7. Use the correct MLA essay format outlined in Bedford.
8. Essay Length: 2 or more pages, stapled.
9. Keep in mind, you do not want to spend most of your paper comparing or contrast obvious characteristics: I already know there are many differences and many similarities between the characters. }
10. Be sure to proof your work.
